

If You Know You Know

Pusha T

Pulling up in that new toy
The wrist on that boy rockstar like Pink Floyd
Waving at rude boy, I'm waving at you, boy
Ran off on the plug too like Trugoy
Imagine me do, boy, you could never do what I do, boy
Still duckin' shit that I did, boy
Niggas in Paris 'fore Hit-Boy
This ain't the same type of hits, boy
Shit can get litter than lit, boy
You don't take these type of risks, boy
'Cause this boy been throwing that D like Rich Boy
You missed, boy
Ya numbers don't add up on the blow
That was ten years ago, if you know, you know (yeah)
If you know, you know
If you know, you know
This thing of ours, oh, this thing of ours
A fraternity of drug dealers ringing off
I just happen to be alumni
Too legit, they still lookin' at me with one eye
The company I keep is not corporate enough
Child rebel soldier, you ain't orphan enough
A rapper turned trapper can't morph into us
But a trapper turned rapper can morph into Puff
Dance contest for the smokers
I predict snow, Al Roker (if you know, you know)
I only ever looked up to Sosa
You all get a bird, this nigga Oprah
Bricklayers in ball shorts
Coaching from the side of the ball court
(If you know, you know)
One stop like a Walmart
We got the Tennis balls for the wrong sport
(If you know, you know)
If you know 'bout the carport
The trap door supposed to be awkward
(If you know, you know)
That's the reason we ball for
Circle around twice for the encore
(If you know, you know) You ever been hit with the water weight
Then had to wait? Do you war or wait?
(If you know, you know)

When we all clicking like Golden State
And you and your team are the motorcade
(If you know, you know)
Been grantin' wishes like a genie
To bad hoes in two-piece bikinis
I've been hiding where you can see me
The skybox is right next to RiRi's
Solely responsible for showing rappers how to stand
On the front lines when trappers started throwing bands
Where were you when Big Meech brought the tigers in?
'Cause I was busy earnin' stripes like a tiger's skin
Bricklayers in ball shorts
Coaching from the side of the ball court
(If you know, you know)
One stop like a Walmart
We got the Tennis balls for the wrong sport
(If you know, you know)
If you know 'bout the carport
The trap door supposed to be awkward
(If you know, you know)
That's the reason we ball for
Circle around twice for the encore
(If you know, you know)
