

Suicide Benz

Josh A

I might, drown tonight with my friends

Time flies, when you think it's the end

I try, but she don't want to pretend

She might, Suicide in my benz

I want, a pretty girl with face tats

Someone, just to make the time pass

Right now, I don't want to wait up

Been down, ever since I came up

Dug my grave

I gave my promise to you that I'd be more honest

But right now I'm not my strongest

Gave up love to make a profit

I can't escape the piece of me

That loved you more than you could see

I can't escape the thought of you with someone else

I'd rather die

I might, drown tonight with my friends

Time flies, when you think it's the end

I try, but she don't want to pretend

She might, Suicide in my benz

I want, a pretty girl with face tats

Someone, just to make the time pass

Right now, I don't want to wait up

Been down, ever since I came up

I'd rather die for you cause then least my life would have meaning

Without you life is not the same I wish I could escape this

Bad at love I know, I hope you understand so keep the heart you stole you made out like a bandit

I can't escape the piece of me

That loved you more than you could see

I can't escape the thought of you with someone else

I'd rather die

I might, drown tonight with my friends

Time flies, when you think it's the end

I try, but she don't want to pretend

She might, Suicide in my benz

I want, a pretty girl with face tats

Someone, just to make the time pass

Right now, I don't want to wait up

Been down, ever since I came up

Dug my grave

I gave my promise to you that I'd be more honest

But right now I'm not my strongest

Gave up love to make a profit

I can't escape the piece of me

That loved you more than you could see

I can't escape the thought of you with someone else

I'd rather die
