

Miyazaki

Gallant

[Verse 1]

Suicide

All the heartbreak hit like suicide, hey

And you was right

You was right to point the finger

At my guilty eyes, babe

[Pre-Chorus]

But tell me if you want me to

Put my pride in check so I can make it up to you, hey

[Chorus]

If you want

I could make your body tremble

If you want to

If you want

I could make a magic potion

If you want to revive

No one has to know (ooh)

No one has to know (ooh)

No no no no, no

[Outro: Scatting]
