

Change

Arin Ray & Kehlani

You've got me all in my feelings
Girl, I know, girl, you're tired from running through my mind (Ayy)
You stole my heart in a minute 'Cause you can't take what you need
And I give back to me
(Got me thinking) Should I stay, should I go, should I leave?
I don't know, goddamn I was thinking of you (Thinking of you)
It's all I do (It's all I do)
Honestly, I might go insane
'Cause when we break up
Can't wait to make up
Girl, you know, some things will never change
Oh no, no, no You can't keep coming and going
In and out of my life
Please make up your fucking mind
I give you time and you kill it
Very personal to me that you give it everything, yeah, yeah Should I stay, should I go, should I leave?
I don't know, god damn I was thinking of you (Thinking of you)
It's all I do (All I do)
Honestly, I might go insane
'Cause when we break up (Break)
Can't wait to make up (Uh)
Girl, you know, some things will never change
(Should I leave, should I stay, should I go?)
Should I leave, should I stay, should I go?
Ball in your court, lay it up, let me know (Mmm)
I've been around for years, back when everything was slow (Slow)
You a superstar, I always told you, you would blow
I see you, I wanna please you, I wanna breathe you (Uh)
If you ever lost the one, don't wanna be the one to leave you (Oh)
Pick you up at night, take a drive, shit, I'll feed you
Somethin' 'bout me, I could guarantee I could complete you
I'm the woman that's gon' show when they ask you, who you riding with
Who get her own around her neck, I'm who you're shining with Pushing for this love, 'cause what you are is what you grow
Look at god, look at love, look at how it overflow I was thinking of you (Thinking of you)
It's all I do (It's all I do)
Honestly, I might go insane (I might go insane)
'Cause when we break up (When we break up)
Can't wait to make up
Girl, you know, some things will never change Change
I keep going through circle, circles, all around you

I keep going through circle, circles, all around you
