

Early Morning

JayDaYoungan

Early morning, woke up I'm horny, girl come here get on me, fuck what's not important

I jumped off the porch then I hopped in a foreign

Circle tight no more friends

Was broke but now I'm touring

No brakes I'm going in

Polo draws Ralph Lauren

Don't know where I'm going, this shit getting annoying

Heard the gossip through the wind, one call I'm on it

Lord forgive me for my sins, prepared for when the storm hit

Don't know what I'm going through, one day it all will end

They ask what hurt, I say the truth, don't lie I can't pretend

Me and you deep in, pussy wet she leaking

You told me you freaky, show me you a freak then

I walk in my heater tucked, bitch don't make me squeeze it up

Fast car yeah this a foreign, top down or leave it up

Back then when I was starving, no they ain't believe in us

Now we make em feel important just to come compete with us

My lil baby she so raw, she like when I beat it up

Pull it out she don't talk, all she do is eat it up

Ass fat it's in the air, so I told her keep it up

All facts I make it clap and even make it reach your guts

Early morning, woke up I'm horny, girl come here get on me, fuck what's not important

I jumped off the porch then I hopped in a foreign

Circle tight no more friends

Was broke but now I'm touring

No brakes I'm going in

Polo draws Ralph Lauren

Don't know where I'm going, this shit getting annoying

Heard the gossip through the wind, one call I'm on it

Lord forgive me for my sins, prepared for when the storm hit

Polo draws Ralph Lauren, prepared for when the storm hit

Polo draws Ralph Lauren, prepared for when the storm hit
