

Body

Bush

Hush child
lay your sweet lips on me
This greed is bigger than you and me
Will you come again,
body? Tongue tied
At visceral third degree
Feel warm
center of gravity Wash us all away body never lies
Will you come again?
Will we stay friends?
Oh you paralyze
Oh you paralyze There are times when I wish that I was you Thick skinned cities that you drive me through Better than me
you're a woman
Seven days
and my system is free again
We rise
lose it on oblivion Falling away
I'm sorry for the way
The way, the way
Your child is on fire
Your child is on fire
Will you come again?
Will we stay friends?
Oh you paralyze
Oh you paralyze Will you come again?
Will we stay friends?
Will you come again? Will we stay, will we stay, will we stay?
Lick these, my ruby lips
Drop your protein pills
And find that it's Better just to lose yourself
We kiss, we kiss, we kiss
Pretty words could never say
Pretty words could never say
Pretty words could never say
Pretty words could never say
Falling away
Falling away

Away
Will you come again?
Will we stay friends?
Will you come again?
Will we stay friends?
Will you come again?
Will we stay, will we stay, will we stay?
Will we stay?
