

Eyes for Nobody

Chris Janson

For a guy like me it takes a while
To find something like I found in your smile
When we're about to start standing here today
I'll be by your side no matter what we face And there's a road I wanna take you down
Where we can lay roots in the ground
Solid as a rock my word is true
Girl I got eyes for nobody but you You can blame that place where I first saw you
Blame how I was raised on the things I do
Well I blame your eyes that looked into mine
Aw but mostly I blame how beautiful you were that night
That's right
There's a road I wanna take you down
Where we can lay roots in the ground
Solid as a rock my word is true
Girl I got eyes for nobody but you I used to worry about being free
Aw but I found freedom when you found me There's a road I wanna take you down
Where we can lay roots in the ground
Solid as a rock my word is true
Girl I got eyes for nobody but you
There's a road I wanna take you down
Where we can lay roots in the ground
Solid as a rock my word is true
Girl I got eyes for nobody but you Nobody but you
Nobody but you
