

Spinnin'

The Ready Set

You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around Start it up with a single touch
If I said I'd leave, it'd be a bluff
I'm locked and loaded, it's so clear I'm alone, I'm insane
And she's my hometown hurricane
The weather's better from out here I can think, I can dream of you
But that gets so quizzical
Maybe I'm a bit less suitable
Ooh, ooh
Shine like a centerfold
Tore out your page to keep you right here Ooh, ooh
My head is spinnin' now
Rotate and turn my world around, dear You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around Run away, it's a test
If I fail, I must confess
My mind will wander at times, dear I'm alone, I'm insane
It's the only price I pay
To ride the storm out with the sights so clear
I can think, I can dream of you
And it comes off lyrical
You stole the show Ooh, ooh
Shine like a centerfold
Tore out your page to keep you right here Ooh, ooh
My head is spinnin' now
Rotate and turn my world around, dear You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around Oh, you're irresistible
I can't get a grip, I know
Focused on you moving so slow Am I predictable?
You've heard it before, I know
But it's alright, alright, alright Ooh, ooh
Shine like a centerfold
Tore out your page to keep you right here Ooh, ooh
My head is spinnin' now

Rotate and turn my world around, dear You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
You keep spinnin' around
