

The Fuzz

Silversun Pickups

[Verse 1]

The fuzz in my head grows
It's already so low
The fuzz in my head stands
It's already all too clear
So much for losing track of time

[Verse 2]

Can cope with a white noise
Repeating imitation
Can cope with a white noise
Blissful complication
The fuzz in my head stands
It's already all too clear

[Pre-Chorus]

And the hum
It separates the two
It's all frontline, frontline
It cuts down in between
And it's all for nothing

[Chorus]

Too bad it's been here for awhile
So much for losing track of time

[Bridge]

And the hum
It separates the two
It's all frontline, frontline
It cuts down inbetween
And it's all for nothing

[Chorus]

Too bad it's been here for awhile
So much for losing track of time
Let go, I've seen it's worth your while

So much for losing track of time
