

Panic (Acoustic Version) [Bonus Track]

Sublime With Rome

So many people running
Don't know where they're going
Panic and panic and panic
Showing no sign of slowing
I need a reason that I gotta know Don't you wish your world was money My only motive for destruction
To be really, really what we were
I need a reason that I gotta know Don't you wish your world was money
Don't you wish your If you open doors and close them
You're quicker than the hands of most
Can't you see there is hope here?
It's time for reaction
Shake me up, somebody wake me up
I need a break from all your mental pollution
There ain't no solution
To all of the damage that you've done Don't you wish your world was money
Don't you wish your If you open doors and close them
You're quicker than the hands of most
Can't you see there is hope here?
It's time for reaction Realize what's wrong, wrong with your life
Quicker than the eyes of most
Can't you see there is hope here?
It's time for reaction How can you say you don't wanna know
Don't wanna know the truth?
How can you say you don't wanna know
Don't wanna know the truth?
How can you say you don't wanna know
Don't wanna know the truth?
How can you say you don't wanna know
Don't wanna know the truth? Yeah, and that's alright
Oh, that's okay
Yeah, and that's alright
Stop right there
