

Lord

Sleepy Sun

Oh lord

I'll give up in time

When all falls in between the lines

Oh soul, we'll fall down to together and retire with the changing weather

I set sail all without a ship

Oh soul, we're in this hall together
We're searching underneath our shelter.

I'm alone. Lift me from my humble home
Beauty calls. Pull me from familiar walls

Oh lord, I believe in heaven

But a sinner told me im a dead man

Oh soul, all I want is freedom

But I'm told materials bleed wisdom

Oh lord, show me sign of power

Rid thy world of all the cowards

Oh soul, we'll find our own savior

Deep down in the coldest winter

I'm alone. Lift me from my humble home

Beauty calls. Pull me from familiar walls
