To Be Alone

Hozier

Never feel too good in crowds With folks around when they're playing The anthems of rape, culture loud Crude and proud creatures baying All I've ever done is hide From our times when you're near me Honey, when you kill the lights and kiss my eyes I feel like a person for a moment of my life But you don't know what hell you put me through To have someone kiss the skin that crawls from you To feel your weight in arms I'd never use It's the god that heroin prays to It feels good, girl, it feels good It feels good, girl, it feels good It feels good, girl, it feels good To be alone with you There are questions I can't ask Now at last the worst is over See the way you hold yourself Reel against your body's borders And I know that you hate this place Not a trace of me would argue Honey, we should run away, oh, someday Our baby and her momma And the damaged love she makes But I don't know what else that I would do Than try to kiss the skin that crawls from you Than feel your weight in arms I'd never use It's the god that heroin prays to It feels good, girl, it feels good It feels good, girl, it feels good It feels good, girl, it feels good To be alone with you It feels good, girl, it feels good It feels good, girl, it feels good It feels good, girl, it feels good
