

Sow Wild Oats

Chris Janson

Five days on a tractor

Cut the corn, cut the backer

Cut the hay bale, a stacker

Up high in the barn

Day six it's on

All night long

Country is as country does

Getting our buzz on

We ain't dead so we're gettin' ready

To dance with every pretty girl in this bar

We're gonna lay it on thick

Gonna work it hard

Gonna kick a honky tonk hole

In this little town

Gonna drink, drink, drink

'Til we're all drunk out

We're just some old farm boys

With some redneck souls

'Bout to get plowed and sow wild oats

Few things on the floor
You might buy a beer for
Or maybe later in the corner
Booth you might hold her
If the neon light hits you just right
Might be your boyfriend for the night

We ain't dead so we're gettin' ready
To dance with every pretty girl in this bar

We're gonna lay it on thick
Gonna work it hard

In this little town
'Til we're all drunk out
We're just some old farm boys

With some redneck souls
'Bout to get plowed and sow wild oats

We might party like fools
Maybe even worse
We might be tired
A little overworked

We ain't dead so we're gettin' ready

To dance with every pretty girl in this bar

We're gonna lay it on thick

Gonna work it hard

In this little town

'Til we're all drunk out

We're just some old farm boys

With some redneck souls

'Bout to get plowed and sow wild oats

'Bout to get plowed and sow wild oats
