

The Reason Why

Little Big Town

[Verse 1]

I could love you
Baby, if you want me to
I could go and fall for you
And never even try, hey, hey

I could let you in
Baby, where nobody's been
Yeah, I'm ready and willing
To give this love a try, hey, hey

[Chorus:]

You're the reason why
(Baby you're the only reason why)
Don't want to say goodnight
(Keep kissing me don't want to say goodnight)
Yeah it feels so right
(Everything is going to be alright)
You're the reason why, hey, hey
You're the reason why, hey, hey

[Verse 2]

You're in my head
Like a song I can't forget
Want to hear it over again
And again hey, hey

Come on and take my hand
I'm ready and willing
Over and over again
